United States OF AMERICAN, ex. rel.
BRANCH CONSULTANTS, L.L.C.

CIVIL ACTION
NO. 06-4091

VERSUS

ALLSTATE INS. CO., et. al.

ORDER

The Court responds to the United States' Motion for Reconsideration filed July 5th, 2007, with attached documents.

The Court GRANTS the Motion for Reconsideration of Order to Show Cause and, upon consideration of the memorandum filed by the United States, does withdraw its Order of June 5th, 2007, believing that the United States has shown cause for its current position in this litigation.

Further, the Court is in full agreement with the control of the discovery processes by the Magistrate Judge and affirms her order with respect thereto.

The Court does not vacate or change its Order to Unseal. Thus, the matter should proceed.

Motion practice matters will not be set for hearing without basic discovery and/or fact stipulations sufficient to leave no factual issues unresolved. Do not waste each other's time (or that of the Court) with "educational" motions.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this 9th day of July, 2007.

United States District Judge
