I do think that if 4 of 5 agree then we must abide by that. If we don't come to that level of consensus then I agree that arbitration would be in order. And maybe all would agree to Dunbar. That is just my view.

I think we should see what the common benefit expenses are and cut checks to clients because that needs to happen soon and then worry about fees shortly after that.

We had earlier written everybody in the group invoking the arbitration provision of the Agreement in light of the impasse Steve and Sid came to during the phone conversation of late February regarding profit sharing or fee splits. In response, Steve and/or I were personally asked by Barrett, David Nutt, Meg, Sparky (who really just asked us to hold up so that we could try to work this out) and Sid to hold up on asking for arbitration or moving in any other direction until a meeting could be held. We gladly acquiesced to this request from our fiduciaries. After rescheduling, the meeting was held at Nutt's at 11:00 a.m this morning.
