

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
HATTIESBURG DIVISION

STATE FARM FIRE AND CASUALTY
COMPANY and STATE FARM MUTUAL
AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE COMPANY

PLAINTIFFS

VS.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:07-cv-188 (DCB) (MTP)

JIM HOOD, IN HIS OFFICIAL CAPACITY AS ATTORNEY GENERAL
OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

DEFENDANT

JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL

This cause having come before the Court on an evidentiary hearing on February 6, 2008, and the Court having received testimony and evidence in open court, as well as testimony and evidence in camera, the Court now finds that it has jurisdiction over this action, and that the January 23, 2007, letter agreement ("Letter Agreement") between Attorney General Jim Hood and State Farm Fire and Casualty Company and State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company (jointly, "State Farm") is a standalone agreement, unambiguous and enforceable between the Mississippi Attorney General on behalf of the State of Mississippi and State Farm, and any of its current and former employees, directors, engineers, agents, counsel and adjusters.

The Court further finds that, based on a confidential settlement agreement between the parties, which shall remain under seal, this case shall be dismissed with prejudice. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the settlement agreement.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the January 23, 2007, Letter Agreement between Attorney General Jim Hood and State Farm is a standalone agreement, unambiguous and enforceable between the Mississippi Attorney General on behalf of the State of Mississippi and State Farm, and any of its current and former employees, directors, engineers, agents, counsel and adjusters;

FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that this action is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE;

FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the settlement agreement between the parties;

FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that each party shall bear its own costs, expenses and attorneys' fees.

SO ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, this the 7th day of February, 2008.

s/ David Bramlette
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE